EPA won't confirm frack-pollution tie in Wyoming

Fox News

Wyoming officials have been skeptical about the theory that fracking played a role in the pollution at Pavillion, but Reynolds expressed confidence the state could lead the work from here. He described the shift as the best way to ensure Pavillion-area ...

EPA will let Wyoming officials carry on fracturing investigation

FuelFix (blog)

The new research led by Wyoming officials would be funded at least in part by a $1.5 million grant from Encana Corp.'s U.S. oil and gas subsidiary, which owns the Pavillion gas field. A final report is due by late 2014. "We think this is the most ...
